STILL FIGHTING THE JEFF-JOHNSON PICTURES

he will bitterly oppose any attempt to exhibit the pictures.

Pictures Forbidden.
At New Brunswick, N. J., mayor Morrison has notified the chief of police that he considers an exhibition of the pictures demoralizing to children of the city, and forbids their exhibition.

Governor Weeks, in a statement issued, says the showing of the fight pictures is against public morals, and he urges the suppression of the pictures in Connecticut.

Mayor Lathrop says that he will not approve of the issuance of a permit for the fight pictures in Springfield, Mass.

Negroes Protest.
The negroes of Corning, Ky., have protested against the exhibition of the fight pictures in that city because they believe trouble with the whites might result. Mayor Craig of Covington was one of the first mayors of the country to announce that he would not interfere with the pictures.

Picture Contract Made.
At Hollidaysburg, Pa., Burgess Jacobs, of Huntington, has affected an agreement with the proprietors of motion picture places there for separate exhibitions of the pictures for whites and negroes.

Indiana Governor Without Power.
That the power of preventing the exhibition of the pictures in Indiana lies with the local authorities and not with the governor, was wired to William Shaw, general secretary of the Christian Endeavor society, by governor Marshall after he had examined the statutes.

Can Show in Montana.
Governor E. H. Norris of Montana has wired secretary Shaw, of the Christian Endeavor society at Boston, that the statutes of Montana are not sufficiently specific to permit any intervention on the part of the state authorities with any exhibition of the fight pictures in Montana.

Utah Will Allow Them.
Replying to a message from an eastern crusader urging him to prevent the exhibition of pictures in Utah, governor Spry has telegraphed that there is no state law under which the pictures can be suppressed. He advised the correspondent to take the matter up with the municipal authorities.

Mayor of Brainerd of Salt Lake is absent and chief of police Barlow says he sees no good reason for interfering with the pictures in Salt Lake City.

Minneapolis Stops Pictures.
Mayor Hays has ordered acting chief of police Monley to see that none of the fight pictures are put on public exhibition in Minneapolis.

Announcement is made that the Paris, Texas, city council will take the necessary legal steps to prevent the exhibition of the pictures of the fight.

At Weatherford, Texas, the city council at last night's session passed an ordinance, which is designed to prohibit the exhibition of the pictures of the fight.

HADLEY, OF MISSOURI, READS NEGROES LECTURE

Declares They Must Act so That Whites Will Respect Them—Johnson Whipped Only a Worn Out Man.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 8.—Governor Hadley has offered a reward of $300 for the arrest and conviction of every person who engaged in the lynching of two negroes at Charleston last Sunday.

"Negroes have no occasion to feel any satisfaction over the result of that fight," said Governor Hadley. "It is only significance is that a negro prize fighter whipped a worn out white prize fighter who had impaired his constitution by idleness and dissipation."

"Jeffries no more represented the white race than does Johnson represent such men as Booker T. Washington or Prof. Dubois. While I propose to do all I can to protect the negroes in their rights and to prevent and punish acts of violence against them, the negro must understand that only by his own conduct can he secure the respect of the people."

POSTAL SERVICE IN TEXAS TO BE BETTER

Washington, D. C., July 8.—Postmaster general Hitchcock said today that following an interview which he had with congressman John N. Garner, of the 15th Texas district, regarding rural free delivery, the postmaster general's department is now busy investigating the resumption of service in a number of instances and the inauguration of other routes in Texas, as well as other portions of the country.

The postmaster at LaPorte has written asking that his postoffice be designated as a reserve for postal savings bank deposits. He said his patrons are anxious to open account with Uncle Sam.

THE RING IS NOT VERY MUCH EXERCISED

after a political job before. There are others after the job, including Wm. Mitchell, former police captain and for a short time police chief and before that a Rough Rider with Roosevelt. Although about the only member of that famous regiment not in a public job, it does not look to the politicians as if he would get on just yet.

This settles the list. Jim Clifford will be a new face in the courthouse, but he goes in without opposition. Jim is going to be county commissioner in the place of S. J. Freudenthal, and then maybe there won't be anybody to make motions to go into executive session, but Jim will be on the job. He is without an opponent and is in the same class with Billy Bridges, George Harper—brother of James, district judge, and of John, school trustee—George Huffman, A. S. J. Elyar, C. E. Kelly, J. W. Eubank and J. E. Palmer; likewise senator Claude Hudspeth and representative W. C. McGowan.

"The Ring" and Colquitt.
So it is plain that "the ring" was never more certain of victory than now. With only one place to worry about and pretty well satisfied that they can and there and put "old man" Hall back on the ranch, they are all feeling good, so good in fact that they have gone into the gubernatorial campaign and decided who shall be El Paso's choice for governor. It's Colquitt, of course, for Colquitt is the "wide open" candidate in the lot as the negroes back in east Texas say—referring to his "liberal" ideas on prohibition, saloons and things of a like character in general. "The ring" doesn't want a "puritanical El Paso" so the ring is for Colquitt and woe be the man who says nay.

Davidson Men Afraid.
An El Paso property owner, who has in the past figured quite a good deal in politics and is still supposed to train with the "ring," is not for Colquitt, but for Davidson, the man who swayed Bailey a jolt under the belt and made the Waters-Pierce company pay a big fine but didn't drive it out of the state. He tried to form a Davidson club, but not a club has he yet. "Every politician I went to," he said, "was afraid. Some said they were for Davidson, but they couldn't come out and say so because they were afraid of 'the ring.' One man told me that he had pledged his wife to vote for Cone Johnson because she favors prohibition, but said he was really for Davidson, but couldn't join the Davidson club lest his wife learn that he was not exactly on the square with her. So I haven't formed the club, but Davidson is going to get a lot of El Paso votes."

The Colquitt Leader.
The Colquitt leadership in El Paso county appears to rest in B. M. Worsham, a member of the "non-political" school board. This doctor used to run the state lunatic asylum up at Austin, and as a politician he is said to have been able to teach even Will Burges and Henry Kelly several things in the line of the little game so persistently played in El Paso all the time and other Texas cities every once in a while. He came out to El Paso and immediately rented an office over Henry Kelly's drug store and was almost immediately put by Kelly on the school board. Then came the information that the ring was for Colquitt, then the information that the educational doctor was going to be state health officer if Colquitt wins. That sounds all right to El Paso, inasmuch as this city has been grievously overlooked in the distribution of the state plums in the past, and whether El Paso as a whole likes Mr. Colquitt or not, many El Paso people are going to vote for him just to help El Paso's newly adopted school trustee knock his predecessor.
